For calls from outside the U.S.

| For more information about friends or relatives visiting or living in Japan, you can visit:  |
|--|
| - The State Department   |
| Stay informed about current conditions in the region through the Smart Traveler Enrollment Program and by visiting our travel information pages. |
| If you are looking for an earthquake or tsunami related message concerning a specific country, please visit that country's U.S. Embassy or Consulate website available at                                      |

| 1-202-501-4444   |
|--|
| For concerns about a specific U.S. citizen in Japan  |
| JapanEmergencyUSC@state.gov  |
|  |
| - The Consulate General of Japan in San Francisco has set up a special operations room to receive inquiries concerning the earthquake.   |
| P: 415-356-2486 (during business hours)  |
| P: 415-777-3533 (after business hours and weekend) You can email sa2cg@cgjsf.org to learn more about providing assistance to victims of the earthquake. |

- U.S Embassy in Tokyo Google Person Finder

For more information about the situation and how to help, you can visit:

- U.S. Agency for International Development (USAID)